

IMPORTANT: PLEASE NOTE

We advise that you save a copy of this PDF proof locally on your computer for your own records. Once this proof has been accepted, we will not accept liability if there are errors on the final printed item(s).

This is not a COLOUR proof.. printing to an inkjet or laser will not show the final colour balance.

We can not be held responsible for overprint or transparency issues unseen by the studio. If you do have any queries regarding your proof please don't hesitate to call our customer services team on 0333 8000 888. Please do not accept the proof until you are completely satisfied. If in doubt please decline the proof.

Thank you for placing your print order...So what happens now!?

Your proof is waiting for you on the page(s) below (scroll down to view), but before your order can go to press...

YOU MUST CHECK

the following things:

- Are the spelling, grammar and position of text correct?
- Is the content information correct? This may include telephone numbers, dates, times, addresses, prices etc.
- Has anything moved within the artwork? Have any of the fonts changed?
- Is the alignment of the artwork correct as supplied?

Questions and Answers:

- Q Why is there a pink line round my artwork?
A The pink line around your artwork is to indicate where your items will be trimmed. This line is simply a guide and will not appear on the final printed item(s).
- Q My artwork was supplied high-resolution but on the proof appears slightly blurred?
A This proof is set at low-resolution. This enables you to download and view your proof quickly and easily. Your artwork may appear a slightly lower quality on your proof, but your print files will remain as supplied. If we feel there are resolution issues with your items you will be contacted.
- Q Why is the proof is showing bolder characters such as 'l's and 'h's?
A This is a viewing issue with Acrobat PDF only. The final print will not show this.
- Q I have supplied my own artwork but have noticed an error - How do I resupply new files?
A If you wish to resupply artwork, simply click decline on the online system and then please email the new files to resupply@facemediagroup.co.uk quoting your name and job number in the subject with a short note if necessary.

Please note - Any changes made by our studio, may require an additional artwork charge.
